Understanding the Discworld Series

The Origin and Concept of Discworld

The Discworld series was created by British author Sir Terry Pratchett, who began the series in 1983 with the publication of The Colour of Magic. The series is set in a flat, disc-shaped world that rests on the backs of four enormous elephants, which in turn stand on the shell of a giant turtle, Great A'Tuin, swimming through space. This imaginative setting allows for a rich blend of fantasy, satire, and social commentary.

The Structure of the Series

The series comprises 41 novels, beginning with The Colour of Magic and ending with The Shepherd's Crown in 2015, shortly after Pratchett's passing. The novels are grouped into several subseries or thematic arcs, featuring recurring characters and settings, such as the city of Ankh-Morpork, the witches of Lancre, the Death character, and the Watch.

While many readers prefer to read the series in publication order, others choose to follow specific subseries or themes. Each novel typically stands alone in terms of plot but is interconnected through the universe, characters, and ongoing cultural and political commentaries.

Introducing the Novel Eric

Overview of Eric
