- Rise of Regional Powers: Local dynasties, such as the Tahirids and Samanids, operated with considerable independence.
- Invasions: The Mongol invasions in the 13th century, after the period covered, eventually led to the fall of Baghdad in 1258, but early signs of decline appeared during this era.

The Emergence of the Seljuk Turks (1055 AD and onwards)

The Seljuk Turks, originally nomadic warriors from Central Asia, began consolidating power in the 11th century. Their arrival marked a significant turning point:
